	Grade	Description	Dates	Days	Times	Instructor	Room
Introduction to Video Production	9-12	Learn more about the inner workings of video cameras and how to record videos with more consistent and professional results. Students will also be taught how to tell a story with camera movement using lights, tripods, backdrops, and audio equipment.	July 9 - 13	M, T, W, TH, F	12:30 - 3:00	Mr. Copeland	Media Lab
3D Design Printing	6-12	The objective of this course is for students to learn how to design a 3D object from a template using www.thingiverse.com/ and then create their own unique work using https://www.thingiverse.com/jumpstart/tinkercad. Both pieces of work will be printed for students to take home.	July 9-13	M, T, W, TH	12:30 - 2:30	Mrs. Rucker	Media Lab
YouTube Editing and Publishing	9-12	The objective of this course is to teach students how to use create, upload, and edit videos on their own personal youtube channel.	July 23-26	M, T, W, TH	12:30 - 2:30	Mrs. Rucker	Media Lab
Spanish Enrichment	1st Grade	Students will have fun learning how to count to twenty, say the days of the week, months of the year, colors, and basic greetings. Plus they will learn about the culture of Central and South America.	July 16 - 20	M, T, W, TH, F	12:30 - 2:30	Mrs. Harvro	B104
Introduction to Video Editing	9-12	Students will learn the basics of professionally editing video from start to finish. They will gather video footage, edit, and export the final video file for broadcast.	July 16 - 20	M, T, W, TH, F	12:30 - 3:00	Mr. Copeland	Media Lab
Greenhouse	8-12	Experience science hands on! Students will work both in the classroom as well as in a newly built greenhouse, learning about nutrition, parts of plants, and how to grow their own. Students will perform experiments analyzing how variables affect the growth of plants, as well as apply what they learn to solve real-life problems. What is "clean energy?" Are GMOs as harmful as they sound?	July 16-20	M, T, W, TH, F	12:30 - 2:30	Mrs. Szelestry	B110
Introduction to Television Broadcasting	9-12	Students will learn how to report and anchor on different high school sports teams. In addition to writing interview questions, observe the game to ask impromptu questions, and study the rules of the game.	July 23 - 27	M, T, W, TH, F	12:30 - 3:00	Mr. Copeland	Media Lab
Fitness and Nutrition	4-6	Students will develop an appreciation of physical fitness and health through various activities such as endurance, strength, and stretch training. In addition to fitness, weekly lessons will include instruction and hands-on activities related to hygiene, nutrition, understanding and coping with emotions, and safety.	July 23 - 27	M,T,W,Th, F	12:30 - 2:30	Mrs. Szelestry	B110
Spanish Enrichment	2-3	Students will have fun learning how to count to twenty, say the days of the week, months of the year, colors, and basic greetings. Plus they will learn about the culture of Central and South America.	July 23 - 27	M, T, W, TH, F	12:30 - 2:30	Mrs. Havro	B104
Introduction To Radio Broadcasting	9-12	Students will learn how to produce radio programs and become on-air personalities for thewoods105.com Students will learn how to operate mixer board, microphones, and audio software for recording.	July 30 - Aug 3	M, T, W, TH, F	12:30 - 3:00	Mr. Copeland	Media Lab	